

Sustainable biomass options to meet the RED targets for 2020

Tuesday April 12, 2011

Venue : European State Forest Association, Rue du Luxembourg 66, Brussels

Workshop organised by the Biomass Futures project (www.biomassfutures.eu)

Final Workshop Agenda

9.30 - 10.00 Registration/ Coffee

10.00 - 12.30

- Welcome: Uwe R. Fritsche, Oeko-Institut on behalf of Biomass Futures
- Keynote: Sustainability of Biofuels and Bioenergy – EC Activities; Fanny Langue, DG ENER
- Bioenergy supply curves in EU Member States including sustainability criteria; Uwe R. Fritsche, Oeko-Institut
- Sustainability requirements on biomass for energy production - Overview of certification systems and legal frameworks. EUBIONET III; Aino Martikainen, Agency for Renewable Resources, FNR, Germany

11.30: Panel discussion (moderated by Berien Elbersen, Alterra) with

- Jean-Marc Jossart, AEBIOM
- Birger Kerckow, ETP Biofuels
- Peter Rechberger, RHC Platform
- Imke Lübbecke, WWF
- Tone Knudsen, Bellona Europa

13.00 - 14.00 Lunch

14.00 - 17.00

- PRIMES scenarios for 2050, including GHG and cost implications of different storylines; Mary Nezi, E3MLab, National Technical University Athens
- Policy framework for sustainable biomass futures; Bettina Kretschmer, IEEP
- Sustainable Bioenergy: A View of the EU Regions; Brian Meany, Committee of the Regions

15.30: Panel discussion (moderated by Uwe R. Fritsche, Oeko-Institut) with

- María Gafo Gómez-Zamalloa, DG AGRI
- Brian Meany, Committee of the Regions
- Birger Kerckow, FNR Germany
- Sven-Olov Ericson, Ministry of Enterprise, Energy & Communications, Sweden

17.00 h: Closing remarks by Uwe R. Fritsche